Dolcetto d'Alba

Denominazione di Origine Controllata

Dolcetto d'Alba is a very important Piedmontese wine that finds in Mango a very favourable microclimate. Its name is due to the particularly sweetness of the pulp from which instead come a dry wine. Red ruby colour tending to the violet; fresh and fragrant at the nose, with notes recalling the ripe cherry and plum. The Brichet has got a fresh aroma, lively. It is a dry wine, slightly bitter, with a moderate acidity, well-balanced, full-body.
